

My business is on a Indian Reservation and I have no cable modem access for high speed internet. This may harm my business and this proposal could interfere with my day to day operation.