

I feel cap-tel service should be provided in all states. I am entering the real estate field and using the standard VCO service creates a problem for a lot of people that I am trying to converse with over the telephone not just in business but in personal conversations too.