

I fully support captioned telephone service becoming a permanent, fulltime service in all states in the United States. I use this service daily and so does my hard of hearing mother. As a teacher of Deaf and Hard of Hearing Students, I also see this valuable communication tool in use by my high school students. I urge you to support this Captel proposal.