

I support the American Library Association's proposal to simplify the application process for E-Rate discounts. Use of just the form 471, elimination of the 470, and providing discounts directly to the applicant (thus eliminating the 472 and 486) would make life simpler for everyone, save time and money, and get the discounts into the applicant's hands quicker.