

I am writing to urge you to support the American Library Association's E-rate reform proposals. These proposals would help to make the application process easier, faster, and less expensive for everyone. Thank you for your attention to this matter.