

I strongly support the ALA's recommendations for restructuring the E-rate process. Simplifying the request and approval process will make the process more efficient, and will make it possible to deliver services to students more quickly. ALA's proposed structure will make it much easier for public schools to obtain services and will enable us to receive discounts more quickly.