

We support the ALA's recommendations because it will make the application process easier, faster, and should be able to get our discounts sooner.