

Hi, It's me again!! Smile...

Here's a perfect example of what I mean by poor quality captioning.

For@ instace@ the captioning@ on Television@ these days are getting% worse and it's almost@ impossib2#$ to under@tan what isbeingsaid these@ days! I know that@ a lot of times the capt90ning is bare234ly discernQ#2!!@le it's dififclut. not!@ only thi23 text@ being mes*#$& up. Captioning@@ is cut off@ wher2n ther'es about2#$ 5 min2Tu3s left in@# pro234$@#....

Imagine having to watch TV with this kind of captioning, and I was being NICE here.. it's actually worse than this on some shows.

Who is monitoring the quality? If I were CEO of ABC, CBS, NBC, or FOX, this is downright embarrassing!

Don't let the big bucks of television say "Oh we'll take care of it, we don't need FCC regulations." PLEASE ENFORCE QUALITY CAPTIONING!!!

Thank you.
