

I support the FCC extension of the Communications Assistance for Law Enforcement Act (CAELA) to include "facilities based broadband Internet access providers" such as libraries and library systems. I am a librarian and I support your proposal.