

I always believe that the broadcast company (news) and movie maker should be responsibility to pay the close caption out from their pocket, also the local news, too..

For low budget movie making, or news, they should get grants from Fed. Govt. to help them

So, please keep caption running 24/7 and make sure there is no deaf behind in the Information Age!

Respectfully yours,
Dewey Charles Mosshart IV