

Please exclude public libraries from the possible impact of CALEA.

The privacy of our users is of paramount importance and should not be compromised. The possible costs would place an undue burden on our already strapped budgets. Thank you.