

Please inform the public more . There is no clear information about the "set top box" that will be needed for broadcast tv. Every time I ask about one I am told to buy a new tv... Is there even such a thing as the "set top box"? If analog tv is going to be phased out soon, why is Congress allowing new analog tvs to be sold?