

I support ARRL's proposed band plan for Amateur Radio. It allows flexibility to experiment with different and new kinds of emission types.