

Where I live I am on the edge of the cell service. I have asked the company UniCell about if they plan on any improvements because my phone is unusable in the area and they told me there are no plans. It would be nice if they are not going to improve there service to cover that are where there isn't any that you give Verizon or someone that is willing to. Thanks