

Companies selling my cell phone calls should be in violation of private consumer information and someone needs to take steps to protect consumers. It should also be illegal for Cell Phone companies to sell my phone numbers for/to marketers without my permission. If our current laws do not cover private consumers congress needs to address these issues.

Thanks you