Subject: HELLO!
To: "George Adams" <wahoo4438@yahoo.com>

HELLO GEORGE, I FINISH ADD MY NAME AND OTHERS TO IT. I HOPE IT WILL HELP. I DONT KNOW WHO TO SEND BACK TO. WE ALREADY FILL OUT WITH FCC WEBSITE AND I THINK IT SHOULD BE SUFFICIENT. HAVE A TRULY BLESS DAY.

I pray, FCC will see 5,000 or 10,000 deaf people's names list with VRS Calling Back
(Please don't forward me with 20 or 30 names on list.)
We need 5,000 or more names on list then you will forward email to me then I will keep forward to Tom's business

I'm sure, Thomas will appreciate to see 5,000 names on list then Thomas will forward send to FCC's business with our names on list form. Thomas will take care of it,
Because He is Thomas DellaMonica Director/ ADA advisor at the Florida Advocate for the People with Disabilities. They will help us work out and better without FCC's rules..
Fill out your name and copy and paste then you will forward email to your friends about Thomas Message here. Wishing You All Good Luck !!

Forwarded Message:

Tank you for contacting the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) with a concern about the Video Relay Service (VRS) form of Telecommunications Relay Services (TRS). Attached is the FCC's Notice about VRS and about improper practices. This may assist in your understanding of why the FCC does not permit call backs.if you or anyone else wants the regulations changed, you will have submit comments electronically into the Docket, or use the hardcopy means described in the previous attachment.

Instructions for electronic comment filing:

1. Access the FCC's Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS) by going to the web site at <http://gullfoss2.fcc.gov/ecfs/Upload/>
2. Click on the Button for 03-123 Docket, then Click on CONTINUE at the bottom of the page.
3. Then enter your comments or recommendations for changes that you would like the FCC to make about TRS.

Thanks again. Wish you success in your business Mr. DellaMonica.

Sincerely yours,

J. Simpson
