

I am against any email robots anywhere on the amateur radio bands.

However, if they must be permitted, they should be allocated to only a few specific frequencies in the data portion of the band.