

I oppose the ARRL "bandwidth" petition, RM-11306, for Pactor-III Email robots. The American Amateur Radio Service always suffers when the "big guns" from the influential organizations step in. Frequency use is congested enough without allowing the internet to overpower us.

I request that the FCC also oppose this petition.