

As an Amateur Radio operator of over 50 years and a collector and re-storer of ham radio equipment of the 1950's, I am firmly against RM-11306. These were the great years of amateur radio and should be preserved. Much can be learned from the past to help us with the future of our fine hobby which offers something for everyone.

Robert Harrison
w2icq Adv class