

I am really enjoying watching Manhattan Neighborhood Network through the internet even though I am in California. I wish we had such a strong Public Access station here in California. The more I learn the better I feel about this democracy and the better I feel about the honor of being an American. Please don't allow rich interests to take it away, especially since they are using public domain in the first place.