

Dear FCC:

Public access is the only medium where low-income individuals and communities with little or no resources have a voice. Local franchising process ensures that this vital community resource remains intact. Please do not give in to the corporate giants and allow them to take away what is essential for the working class to voice their concerns and express their opinions.

Save Public Access!