

To the Federal Communications Commission,

I feel we need to protect localism, so we are able to turn to tv channels that are able to inform and teach. I have been learning Spanish and keeping up with what is going on around my state and county. I find it a great learning tool for my grandchildren. I support public access tv in Georgia and feel strongly that the FCC rule for the maintenance of local Franchises.

Darlene Hahn