

In my community, in
Newton, Massachusetts, local public access
television has been
a failure (hardly
used, little viewed,
outrageous
programming that is out of synch with
the community,
unresponsive to
public comment,
etc.) I see no reason to continue to require cable
providers to fund
local public access
TV.