

Public television and radio stations are an important part of American media. I religiously watch public television, and am very thankful to have the option to watch programs that are educational and provide a balance to the media on other channels. Please do not take this valuable asset from the people.

Thank you,
Vevila Hussey, MSW