

Please keep community access t.v. alive in Seattle and the nation. IndiaMediaPresents is one show I do not want to lose from channel 77 in Seattle. The FCC is our hope for a democratic society who has access to a variety of news sources. I fear the private cable companies will use the FCC to take local public access from local customers.