

My comment is in regard to the Indiana "Do Not Call" list. I support the do not call list and the privacy it provides. Phone calls received at home by telemarketers are a disruption of my family's privacy.