

Dear Sirs, as part of my right to privacy pursuant to the Constitution of the United States please allow the citizens of our country the right to stop annoying and sometimes insulting telephone calls from telemarketers who most of the time have no listed number.