

I am greatly disturbed to hear that the Indiana 'Do not call' law is under attack. I have no wish to have yet more unsolicited calls: I am already forced to screen all my incoming calls due to unscrupulous telemarketers ignoring my 'do no call' requests, and I have no wish to have my rights further eroded. I am strongly against the Indiana 'Do not call' law being repealed.