

I just want to make somebody aware that I received an unwanted fax. The company is www.PillsforLove.com. The fax is meant to look like it was sent on accident. It has fake hand writing on it and is addressed to Marv and signed Wayne. It is for a male performance supplement. I hope something can be done about this and other people are made aware because I know I don't like getting this stuff in my place of business. Thank you.
