

It is our right as citizens to decide if companies should have the right to call our homes. You only place your number on the do not call registry by choice. I made my choice when I did. Who should be able to take that choice away from me? I pay my phone bill, not the solicitors.