

It is our right as citizens to decide who can call our homes. Your phone number is put on the do not call registry by choice. I made my choice when I put my number on the list. Who should be able to take that choice away from me. I pay my phone bill, not the solicitors.