

I agree with this petition. I would like to apply for a General Class Amateur Radio License but at my age I would have trouble passing the Morse Code requirement. The ability to use Morse Code is not necessary for ham operators to be able to help in emergency/disaster situations as the majority of ham operators no longer use CW and even more people like me will be able to help if the code requirement for licensing is removed.