

Regarding allowing people to use cell phones on planes. I don't know what the safety aspect of this might be but I would like to see the ban on using phones continue. I can just imagine sitting next to someone on a plane who feels they have to run their mouth on a cell phone from the time you take off until the time you land. Please don't this to happen. Thank you. Tom Szewczyk