

Due to the close proximity on the airlines between each seat, it would be too difficult to prevent voices from carrying and intruding on others. I use the time on the plane to work, read or sleep and would appreciate this continued respect. Therefore I strongly feel that cell phone usage should be limited to a phone booth on the plane or not allowed at all.