Re: MB Docket No. 05-192

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Time Warner Inc. (“Time Warner”) today submitted additional documents to supplement its document production and responses to the Commission’s Information and Document Request dated December 5, 2005.¹ Specifically, the Option Agreement and Sales Agreement relating to SportsTime Ohio and the “License Agreement” referenced in the SportsNet New York Affiliation Agreement were submitted to the Commission as part of the unredacted version of this letter.

The final agreement relating to Carolinas Sports and Entertainment Television (“C-SET”) was included with the supplemental documents submitted on March 14, 2006. This continues to be the operative agreement pursuant to which Time Warner Cable (“TWC”) systems carry certain Charlotte Bobcats basketball games, as TWC explained in its letter dated March 2, 2006. Specifically, the original 2004 agreement provided that, in the event the C-SET service ceased operating, TWC had the option to elect to automatically amend/novate the affiliation agreement into a direct license for the Bobcats events according to terms contained in Section 22. TWC made that election when C-SET ceased operating, and the affiliation agreement was therefore automatically amended/novated. A copy of the novation letter was also submitted with today’s unredacted filing.

¹ Letter from Donna C. Gregg, Chief, Media Bureau, to Steven N. Teplitz, et al., Time Warner Inc., dated December 5, 2005 (“Information Request”).

As all these documents contain "Highly Confidential" and "Confidential" information, they were submitted under separate cover according to the terms of the First and Second Protective Orders in this proceeding. This redacted version of the letter, without the subject documents attached, is hereby submitted into the public record pursuant to those orders. Please contact the undersigned with any questions regarding the foregoing.

Sincerely,

Arthur H. Harding
Counsel for Time Warner Inc.
