Re: Partner Communications Cooperative
Certification of CPNI Filing
EB Docket No. 06-36, EB-06-TC-060

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On February 3, 2006, Partner Communications Cooperative (“PCC”), pursuant to the Federal Communications Commission’s (“FCC”) Public Notice dated February 2, 2006 (DA 06-258), submitted its CPNI certification and accompanying statement explaining how PCC’s CPNI operating procedures ensure that it is complying with the FCC’s CPNI rules. Because this filing was originally forwarded to the Secretary’s Office via United Parcel Service without a reference to the docket number, this report is hereby re-submitted via the FCC’s Electronic Comment Filing System (“ECFS”) to ensure its inclusion in the public record.

If you require further information with respect to this matter, please contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,

/s/

Michael R. Bennet

Contributions

From time to time, PARTNER COMMUNICATIONS COOPERATIVE makes donations to worthwhile charities and non-profit organizations in its own name. Contributions considered worthwhile include community youth activities, community wide projects such as play ground equipment and so on. Contributions are made only in communities where our employees will benefit or which meet the public relations goals of the company. All decisions concerning contributions will be made by the General Manager of PARTNER COMMUNICATIONS COOPERATIVE with input from all employees.

Customer Proprietary Network Information (CPNI)

PARTNER COMMUNICATIONS COOPERATIVE believes information about a customer's account is proprietary and confidential and should never be shared outside the cooperative. It is our policy not to share customer proprietary network information with any other entity for the purpose of marketing or selling other products and services. As a member of the cooperative, all of our products may benefit you by increasing your potential member allocation and future dividends. Information may be sent to a member regarding the benefits of the cooperatives products and services which they don't currently subscribe to from time to time. Direct mail is our most common form of customer communications. This includes our monthly bill insert, member news letter, other direct mailers and email newsletter. Our members may opt out of receiving these mailings by contacting our business office and requesting to be removed from the mailing list. All decisions concerning the sharing of Customer Proprietary Network Information (CPNI) will be addressed by the Executive Vice President of PARTNER COMMUNICATIONS COOPERATIVE within the guidelines of cooperative policy and the FCC rules.

Dress Code and Personal Appearance

Please understand that you are expected to dress and groom yourself in accordance with accepted social and business standards, particularly if your job involves dealing with customers or visitors in person.

A neat, tasteful appearance contributes to the positive impression you make on our customers. Your attire is expected to be suitable and groomed during working hours or when representing PARTNER COMMUNICATIONS COOPERATIVE. A good, clean appearance bolsters your own poise and self-confidence and greatly enhances our company image. When working at a customer's site, please dress appropriately according to their corporate culture.

Personal appearance should be a matter of concern for each employee. If your supervisor feels your attire and/or grooming is out of place, you may be asked to leave your workplace until you are properly attired and/or groomed. Employees who violate dress code standards may be subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

Keep in mind the discomfort your supervisor would feel if she/he had to address this issue with you.
