Re: Applications for Consent to the Assignment and/or Transfer of Control of Licenses, Adelphia Communications Corp., Assignors, to Time Warner Cable Inc., Assignees; Adelphia Communications Corp., Assignors and Transferors, to Comcast Corporation, Assignees and Transferees; Comcast Corporation, Transferor, to Time Warner Inc., Transferee; Time Warner Inc., Transferor, to Comcast Corporation, Transferee, MB Docket No. 05-192

Dear Ms. Dortch:

At the request of the Media Bureau, Comcast Corporation (“Comcast” or the “Company”) hereby updates the record in the above-referenced proceeding concerning the rollout of its Internet Protocol (“IP”) Phone Service. As Comcast previously has explained in this proceeding, the Company is making the provision of “Comcast Digital Voice” (“CDV”) to all of its subscribers one of its highest priorities.¹ Since Comcast last reported on the status of its CDV rollout in this proceeding in November 2005, the service has continued to grow rapidly.²

¹ See Letter from James R. Coltharp, Chief Policy Advisor, FCC & Regulatory Policy, Comcast Corporation, to Marlene H. Dortch, filed in MB Docket 05-192, at 5-6 (Nov. 22, 2005) (“November 22 Merger Benefits Letter”).

REDACTED

Comcast now makes its CDV service available in 30 markets³ to approximately 19 million households—an increase of 7 million households since November 2005.⁴ Comcast currently provides CDV to approximately customers, and the Company expects that the service will continue to grow rapidly. By the end of 2006, Comcast projects that CDV will be available to approximately 32 million homes and will have approximately subscribers.

Because the information herein includes highly sensitive commercial data, Comcast submits this letter under the First Protective Order in the docket.⁵ Pursuant to the Protective Order, Comcast is submitting one copy of this information in unredacted form. Comcast also is delivering two copies of the unredacted information to Julie Salovaara of the Media Bureau. According to the terms of the Protective Order, this information should not be placed in the public record in this proceeding.

The unredacted version of the filing is available for inspection, pursuant to the terms of the Protective Order, at the office of Wiley Rein & Fielding LLP. Arrangements for inspection may be made by contacting the undersigned or Sam Le (202-719-7261), Wiley Rein & Fielding LLP, 1776 Street NW, Washington, DC 20006.

³ These markets include:

⁴ See November 22 Merger Benefits Letter at 5 (noting availability of CDV service to 12 million households). In the November 2005 Merger Benefits Letter, Comcast stated its projection that CDV would be available to 15 million households by the end of 2005. As of year-end 2005, the service was available to 16 million households.
