

I support the ACA petition. Creditors should be able to call debtor's mobile phones using autodialers and recorded messages. The FCC has consistently drawn a distinction between telemarketing and collection calls when interpreting the TCPA and should explicitly do so now.