

Please do not allow debt collectors (or anyone) to use auto-dialers to call cell phones. It is not fair for consumers to have to pay for calls from such companies. I try to keep my cell phone number private except for close friends and family. This ensures that I don't waste my minutes on unwanted calls. If a debt collector wants to call a cell phone, he or she should be required to do so manually.