

I am against allowing debt collectors to call cell phones.

The person receiving the call will be charged for incoming cell phone calls which may result in bill amounts owed increasing. Collection calls also result in abusive language, calls at odd hours, calls to employers and others. There are other means available to collect debts.