Statement of Cablevision Lightpath Explaining Its Protection of Customer Proprietary Network Information (CPNI)

Cablevision Lightpath, Inc. (“Lightpath”) assures compliance with Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”) regulations on protection of customer proprietary network information (“CPNI”) by way of the following:

- Adoption, dissemination, and training of employees on CPNI protection policy and procedures.
- Maintaining procedures to secure CPNI from inappropriate disclosure.
- Maintaining procedures for obtaining appropriate customer permission before use of CPNI in situations where customer permission is required. Maintaining systems that clearly record whether customer permission has been granted.
- Maintaining procedures for appropriate approval and review by the Lightpath legal office of any proposed use of CPNI.
- Maintaining procedures for appropriate recordkeeping of allowable uses of CPNI.
- Maintaining procedures for identification, reporting, and remediation of any inappropriate use of CPNI including employee disciplinary procedures, if necessary.
