In Re: New York Public Service Commission Certification of Healinc Telecom, LLC
Eligibility for Receipt of Payments from the Federal Telecommunications Relay
Service Fund, Pursuant to 47 C.F.R. §64.604(c)(5)(iii)(F)(1)

Dear Mr. Chandler:

By this letter, the New York Public Service Commission, the Federal Communications Commission ("Commission")-certified agency responsible for the State of New York Telecommunications Relay Service ("TRS") Program, certifies that Healinc Telecom, Inc. ("Healinc"), a New York-based provider of video relay services, meets the Commission's Mandatory Minimum Standards for the provision of telecommunications (and video) relay services set forth in 47 C.F.R. §64.604, and may provide video relay services in New York State.¹

The New York Public Service Commission has evaluated the video relay services provided by Healinc, and found Healinc compliant with the requirements of the Commission rules, to the extent that such rules are not waived. The finding is made on a non-exclusive basis, and is without prejudice to the right of other video relay service

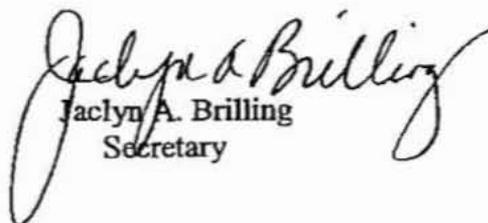

¹ The New York Public Service Commission acknowledges the Commission's December 12, 2005 Report and Order, and Order on Reconsideration addressing the issue of the certification and oversight of TRS providers seeking compensation from the Interstate TRS Fund, FCC 05-203 in CG Docket No. 03-123. New York Commission certification of Healinc's VRS was initiated on September 2, 2005, prior to promulgation of the Commission's rules.
