

RFD-TV is an important part of my life as a rural landowner and horse person. The network provides a great public service.

It would be a huge mistake, a travesty of justice, and a disservice to America's rural tradition and population for the FCC to find that RFD-TV is not providing a needed educational public service.