

Dear FCC, RFD-TV is an important part of my life as a rural landowner and horse person. The network provides a great public service. It would be a huge mistake and travesty of justice, not to mention a disservice to America's rural tradition for the FCC to find that RFD-TV is not providing a needed educational public service. Thank you for your time.