

I first began watching FRD-TV because of Superior Livestock Auctions. since then i have grown to enjoy the equestrian shows and all those related to my passion of agriculture (farming & livestock) it is one a few truly wholesome family network with something for all ages. if you love farming and livestock it could be called the farmer / rancher channel. thanks for this opportunity to comment.

Glenn J. Larson