School Performance Report

This is a very special time in your child's life. He or she will be learning many new academic, social, emotional and motor skills. Parents play a major role in helping their child reach their potential. Research in the area of child development points out that most of a child's intellectual development takes place before he or she enters a formal classroom. This means that children spend a great deal of time with their first teachers, their parents. Indeed, as parents, your involvement in your child's learning experiences will have much to do with how well your child succeeds in school and in later life. By working together, I believe we can all help your child become the best person possible socially, emotionally and scholastically.

We are looking forward to working with you and your child. We feel education is a high and noble cause, and we are very concerned that every child receive the best education possible. We feel that the success your child enjoys is an indication of a positive attitude for learning that is taught both at home and at school. We have prepared the information on this website on school policies, procedures, and information to aid you in preparing your child for school. We appreciate your involvement and support of our school and look forward to a great year in "Pantherland".

Sincerely,

Brent Bird

2001-2002 ANNUAL REPORT

We at Finley Elementary School are very proud of our students and our educational programs. It is our belief that quality education can be achieved through high expectations of student performance and behavior, strong family/school/community partnerships, and a dedicated, enthusiastic and committed staff providing the best education possible for all our students. This report is our opportunity to inform you of our combined efforts to improve your children's education.

Finley Elementary School has a strong tradition of stepping out and developing programs for improved student learning. To help us better understand and plan for specific needs of our school clientele, Finley Elementary School initiated a School-Wide Improvement Process during the 2000-2001 school year. From this was developed our 2001-2002 School Improvement Goals and Professional Development Plans. These include plans to:

- Continue improvement in the implementation of our Make Your Day discipline/citizenship program.
- Use our math improvement plan to develop a more consistent, school- wide math program focusing on...
 - o Making math more enjoyable for students, parents and teachers.
 - o Helping students communicate more effectively in mathematics.
 - o Striving to meet the District Math Goal.
