

VONAGE it's a trap. You may think it sounds good but the other person can hear you well. It sounds like a bad cell phone at best.

Their customer service is a joke and they can never solve the problem. To top things off they don't give credit for bad service and they charge a $39.99 disconnect fee. What a rip off.

A company like that is not good for America.

Thank you