

Stop taking away our freedoms in order to make even more money. I oppose any relaxation or elimination of the public interest limits on media ownership. We are giving our public voice, to greedy corporate interests, so all we get is propaganda. I ask the FCC to stand strong against media consolidation. In fact, the media monopolies should be broken up.

A vote against media consolidation is a vote for democracy.