Re: Applications for Consent to the Assignment and/or Transfer of Control of Licenses, Adelphia Communications Corp., Assignors, to Time Warner Cable Inc., Assignees; Adelphia Communications Corp., Assignors and Transferors, to Comcast Corporation, Assignees and Transferees; Comcast Corporation, Transferor, to Time Warner Inc., Transferee; Time Warner Inc., Transferor, to Comcast Corporation, Transferee, MB Docket No. 05-192

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On June 28, 2006, Jim Coltharp of Comcast Corporation (“Comcast”), Steven Teplitz and Susan Mort of Time Warner Inc. (“Time Warner”), and the undersigned, representing Adelphia Communications Corp. (“Adelphia”), (collectively, the “Applicants”) met with Commissioner Deborah Taylor Tate and Ian Dillner, regarding the above-captioned proceeding.

Applicants discussed the status of the proceeding, including the recent developments in Adelphia’s bankruptcy.

Comcast addressed the availability of regional sports networks (“RSNs”) with which it is affiliated. The discussion on RSNs focused on Applicants’ positions that were previously raised in their filings in this proceeding.

Applicants discussed materials previously submitted in the record on the issue of Internet access. Applicants pointed out that there is no evidence in the record of this proceeding that they have denied their customers access to any content, service, or application on the Internet.

Comcast also addressed matters related to the distribution of PBS KIDS Sprout (“Sprout”) programming previously covered in filings submitted in this proceeding. Comcast underscored that Sprout is available for distribution by all multichannel video program distributors.

If you have any questions on this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Michael H. Hammer
