 Here are the latest details on the KALW renewal.

1) You and I spoke on April 2nd.
 The same day I contacted Peter Doyle at the FCC who is the head of Audio Services and most directly responsible for the renewal.

2) Peter Doyle e-mailed me back on April 3rd.
 His message said:

"Believe it or not, I expect a decision in days.
 I will try to squeeze this out before NAB and give you a heads up if I succeed."

3) We checked on a daily basis at the FCC last week with no decision having been announced.

4) Today we spoke with Mike Wagner who is Peter Doyle's lawyer.
 He says, that at Peter Doyle's request, he met last week about the KALW renewal with Roy Stewart who is Chief of the FCC of Broadcast License Policy and with Robert Ratcliffe who is the Deputy Bureau Chief of the Media Bureau. (Peter Doyle reports to the Media Bureau.)

5) Mr. Wagner, who wrote the original proposed KALW decision, says that he was asked by Mr. Stewart and Mr. Ratcliffe to revise his current draft.
 Mr. Wagner said that he would begin the revision today and expects to return the draft to Mr. Stewart and Mr. Ratcliffe in the next couple of days.

 We will continue trying to track and decision and get the FCC to issue it as quickly as possible.

 Best regards,

 Ernie
